Purpose

This Policy explains how Australia Institute of Future Education (AIFE) creates, manages, stores, retrieves and disposes of records.

Scope

This Policy applies to:

- All staff (full-time, part-time, casual or contract)
- Contractors and consultants providing services to AIFE
- Members of AIFE's Governing Bodies, and
- All records AIFE creates, including paper-based and electronic records.

Policy

Principles

The creation, management, storage, retrieval and disposal of records at AIFE will be guided by the following principles.

Records

- Important records on a range of AIFE activities are generated including on teaching, students, staff, finances and business administration. AIFE will implement good practice in the creation, management, retrieval, security, and disposal of such records through this Policy
- Privacy and risk mitigation are fundamental considerations in the management of all corporate and personnel records
- Access to all records is restricted to authorised staff with a business process requirement
- Record management training will be given to new staff at induction

Data

- Data is collected only for the following purposes:
 - To support AIFE's operational activities
 - To inform quality improvement, risk management and strategic planning
 - To meet external reporting requirements
- All AIFE staff are responsible for collection of accurate and complete data
- Personal data collected by AIFE will be managed responsibly
- Data is protected from unauthorised access and modification
- Data is only made available to third parties in accordance with legal and regulatory requirements

General Requirements

Record Creation and Capture

- All staff are required to maintain accurate records of all activity for which AIFE may be held accountable and integrate these records within AIFE's records management system in compliance with this Policy
- All documents must be marked with version control including date of record creation / update

Record Storage, Archiving and Disposal

- In determining appropriate storage for current and non-current records, consideration must be given to the protection provided by any selected storage facility, sensitivity of records, required retention periods as well as access requirements and demands
- Staff are responsible for applying adequate security measures for the access and use of records in accordance with legislative, regulatory or business requirements.
- Records should be accessible on a 'need-to-know' basis and security arrangements should provide for reasonable protection and detection of breaches
- Staff must not relinquish, amend, destroy or damage records belonging to AIFE without approval from the CEO
- Records will be retained for a period determined by the type of record:
 - Business records – A minimum of seven (7) years
 - Staff records – A minimum of five (5) years after the staff has ceased employment at AIFE
 - Student records will be retained indefinitely and securely archived after two years to enable students to request access to their records.

Record Security and Data Protection

- The security of records is established through electronic back-up, and/or secure storage on-site or off-site in an area where records are protected from damage and incursion but may be retrieved as required and authorised
- Measures for the prevention of unauthorised access, disclosure or alteration of personal, sensitive or otherwise confidential information include the following controls:
 - Access to student and staff records are to be provided only on a 'need-to-know' basis
 - Third party access to personal information is limited to what is permitted under this Policy
 - Physical records are stored in secured areas or secured cabinets

- Contracts with external parties which may access or be provided with AIFE records will include relevant legal provisions in their contracts about AIFE's records management requirements and processes.

Categories of Records
